EXPERIENCE

Designer + Web Developer

Suburbia Advertising — suburbiaadvertising.com
2006 - current

I am currently employed at Suburbia Advertising, the leading retail branding agency in Western Canada. My contributions to the team include concept and design of traditional media as well as online and new media campaigns across Canada. I also work on developing Drupal websites for our clients to manage their brands online.

Designer + Web Developer

Industrial Brand Creative — industrialbrand.com
2003 - 2006

My contributions to the Industrial Brand team included creating websites from design through to programming. I also worked on major print projects through each phase: concept, design, production and press checking. Throughout the projects I interacted with the clients, interpreting their needs and applying their desires into our designs. I also contributed both design and original content to the award-winning company blog: blog.industrialbrand.com.

Designer + Web Developer

Brave Pixel Media Corp.
2003 - 2004

As an employee of the young design company I was given the opportunity to work on various websites from concept to presentation to completion as well as many smaller print related jobs.
